1. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by one party (the "Discloser") to the other party (the "Recipient"), whether orally, in writing, or by inspection, that is marked as confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential. 3. Obligations of the Recipient

The Recipient will use Confidential Information only for the Purpose and will protect it using at least the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care. The Recipient may share Confidential Information only with its employees who need to know it for the Purpose.

4. Compelled Disclosure

If the Recipient is required by law to disclose Confidential Information, it will give the Discloser prompt notice so the Discloser may seek a protective order, and will disclose only the portion legally required.

5. Term

This Agreement remains in effect for two (2) years from the Effective Date. The Recipient's obligations survive for two (2) years after the Agreement ends.

6. No License

Nothing in this Agreement grants the Recipient any license or other right in the Discloser's

Confidential Information, except the limited right to use it for the Purpose.

7. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

8. Entire Agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties about its subject matter and may be amended only in a writing signed by both parties.
